HERS INSTITUTES PARTICIPANTS 2009

"HERS afforded me the opportunity to connect with other great women leaders, to take a closer look at where I currently am in my career and to make some decisions in my professional life. I have come out of this refreshed, with a new energy and tools for dealing with the challenges ahead."

"I found the experience to be empowering and exhilarating. I particularly appreciated both the formal and informal opportunities to meet and become connected to such an amazing group of accomplished women. I believe that HERS helped me to acquire skills that will benefit both me, my current institution, and any other organization I might later join."
