

Bed & Breakfast Stay Manhattan, Kansas

Daughters House Bed & Breakfast

The newly restored Daughters House Bed and Breakfast will open in October, 2010 and is now taking reservations. The Daughters House was built in 1892 for local businessman David C. Hulse and purchased in 1903 by Judge Curtis Benjamin Daughters who lived there until 1937. The unique Shingle Style house was designed by Cornell trained Herbert McClure Hadley, the first licensed architect in the State of Kansas and is listed on the National Register of Historic Places.
