Praise from Participants HERS INSTITUTE Denver 2008

"The consistently high quality of presentations was outstanding. Each HERS faculty member added something special to my understanding of higher education and my role."

"I knew that at HERS I would learn more about myself and how to do my job well. What I didn't expect was that I came away caring so much more about the mission and future of my institution."

"The HERS sessions around budgets and finance were great. I took away language and concepts that I was able to use immediately in my own discussions with the VP Finance at the university. Thank you again for such an enriching experience."
